BEKO

Welcome to the world of Beko Built-In appliances where functionality and simplicity blend harmoniously with elegance and style.

The kitchen is increasingly the focal point of the home where we spend more and more time. It is where families get together and friends meet and chat. Combining the latest technology with modern aesthetics, the Beko Built-in range allows you to create affordable and contemporary kitchens designed to withstand the demands of a busy family life.

All Beko Built-In appliances are 'A' energy rated or better and offer a wide range of practical features suited to your individual needs.

The latest collection features two premium ovens that have the benefit of the 'Programme Clean' technology as well as offering 30% saving on energy. With a new front control panel design, the 60cm gas hob adds a great finishing touch to the cooking range. Both fridge freezers have also been upgraded to 'A+' for greater performance with minimal consumption.

Beko is proud to be a member of the KBSA reflecting the quality and design excellence of the 2011 product range.
